A Leader's Prayer

Leadership is hard to define.
Lord, let us be the ones to define it
with justice.
Leadership is like a handful of water.
Lord, let us be the people to share it
with those who thirst.
Leadership is not about watching
and correcting.
Lord, let us remember it is about
listening and connecting.
Leadership is not about telling
people what to do.
Lord, let us find out what people want.
Leadership is less about the love of power, and more about the power of love.
Lord, as we continue to undertake the role of leader let us be affirmed by the servant leadership we witness in your son Jesus.
Let us walk in the path He has set
and let those who will, follow.
Let our greatest passion be compassion.
Our greatest strength, love.
Our greatest victory, the reward of peace.
In leading let us never fail to follow.
In loving let us never fail.

As we come to the Easter break this Thursday at 2.15 pm, I would like to take this opportunity to congratulate all students on a great first term. It has been a busy ten weeks but also time filled with excitement, joy, productivity and a sense of stability. It is with gratitude that we acknowledge that it has been a far different, less disruptive beginning to the year than compared to twelve months ago. Take the time to rest and enjoy some family time together with the new freedoms from this Friday. Happy Easter to all our students and their families.

Induction of College Leaders and Year 12 Opening Mass

It was exciting to finally come together last Thursday to welcome and induct the new College leaders, and celebrate the new year in our Opening Mass with Father Andrew. Our Student Leaders are a very impressive team of young people who will lead this community well. But we also know that leadership is more than a title or badge, and that every student in Year 12 has an important role to play. What they do matters greatly.

In my discussion with the students, I spoke about walking in the footsteps of the many wonderful and compassionate Brigidine Sisters over our very long history, and the students and staff who over the generations have left a positive legacy upon our community. The mantle has now passed to the new Year 12 students, to hold in trust the values that are so important to our community: Compassion, Courage, Hope, Hospitality, Justice and Wonder. We wish them every success in 2021, in the knowledge that they have our support and our confidence in their leadership. Thank you to the parents who joined us on Thursday either onsite or online. Your presence was very much appreciated by students and staff.

Congratulations to all Year 12 students and College Captains: Hendrix Bourizk and Olivia Cole

Learning Leaders:

Athletics Day

Tuesday is our annual Athletics Day at Alexandra Oval. All students need to be there by 8.55 with sunscreen, hat, a water bottle and lunch. Students usually dress in their House colours. Unfortunately, the grandstand is undergoing repairs at this moment. While we will provide some shade areas for students, it is most important the hats remain on, and that sunscreen is applied regularly throughout the day. Parents are most welcome to attend but please understand that at this stage we will need to implement student only areas. Hopefully, as things continue to progress, we will soon be back to a very united community of parents, families, students and staff together.

Stations of the Cross

We end the term with the Year 12 presentation of Stations of the Cross in the lead up to Easter. Each year level will walk down to the Ararat theatre with their teachers for one of the presentations. This is always a wonderful way to finish the term and a reminder of the importance of this time of year within the church calendar. While we are limited on attendees this year to students and staff only, we will do our best to capture the presentation for parents and families though a series of photos and video (if possible). Live streaming will not be possible due to the continual changing of locations around the theatre. Well done to the Year 12 students on their work towards this presentation with their teachers Mr Summers, Mr Casey and Mrs Hogan.

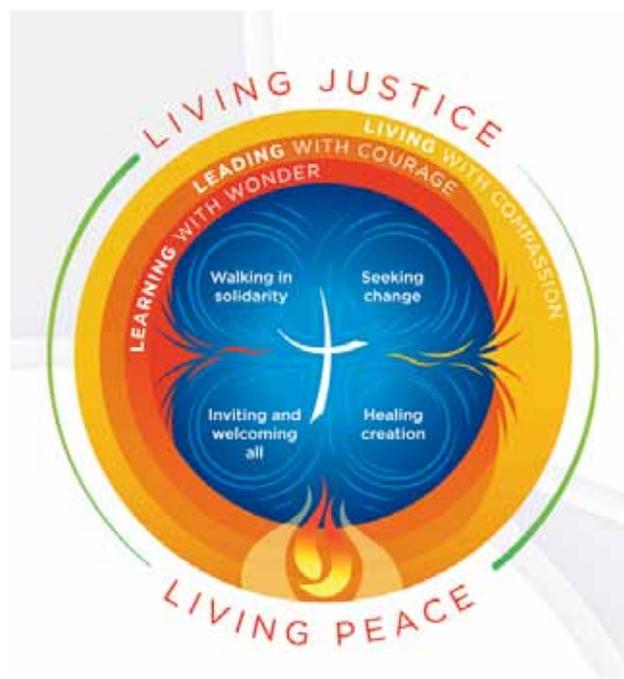

Uniform

All students return on Tuesday 20th April. This is the official day for students to move to the winter uniform. Please note that puffer jackets or similar non-school items are not permitted. While the College rain jacket is not compulsory, other jackets or non school uniform items are not permitted. The holiday break is a good time for students and families to organise the correct uniform in preparation for the new term. If parents are experiencing financial difficulties at this time, I would encourage you to please contact the College Business Manager on 53523861 for discussion and support.

Living Justice Living Peace

This year Kildare Ministries launches the new Living Justice Living Peace Charter for all Kildare Ministries schools and community works. This has been an evolving process of defining the key principles of living out justice and peace within and beyond our community. Under the three aspects of Learning with wonder, Leading with courage and Living with compassion, we are invited to walk in solidarity, to seek change where injustice exists, and to create a life of peace and dignity for all humans while protecting our planet, and to break down the barriers that separate people. Students will explore each of the aspects through their Religion lessons and within allocated Teacher Advisor lessons.

Have a wonderful Easter break.

Carmel

OPENING MASS

IN MY WORDS with Phoebe McKiernan

Learning Leader

August 4th is when my second cousin and I entered the Geelong Hospital ward. Having been stuck in one setting for the better part of a year, I could not wait to escape and catch up on the 9 months and 2 weeks that I had already missed. With labour that took a grand total of 50 minutes, I raced out of there into my exciting new adventure.

I discovered an early interest in risk-taking, having scared my mother on numerous occasions up on high benches and shelves before I could even walk. Along with my Spiderman abilities, I also discovered the magical world of paper and pencils. Not long after (remembrance day 2004 to be exact) my baby sister was born and I came to realise that paper surely couldn't be the only thing I could draw on. Eden experienced the luxuries of a tattoo artist, hairdresser and seamstress all in her first 3 years, what a lucky girl to have a sister such as I.

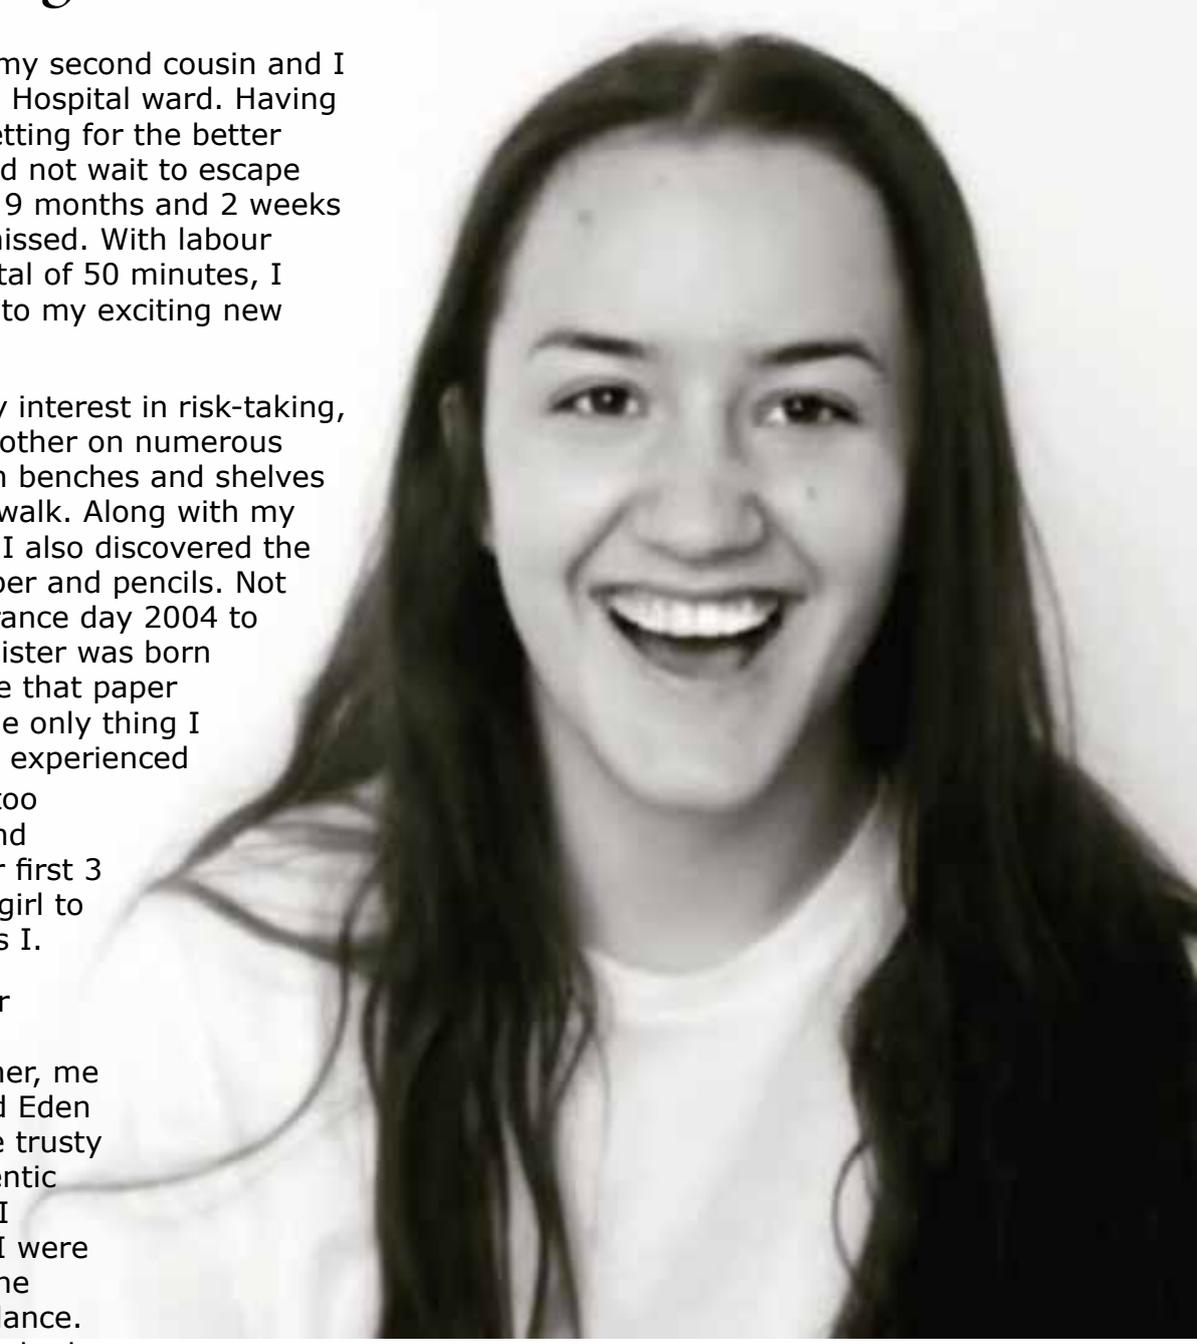

We grew up together causing mischief everywhere... or rather, me causing mischief and Eden following me like the trusty sidekick every authentic villain needs. When I turned 4, Eden and I were both introduced to the wonderful world of dance. Through a life of constant changes and migrating, dance was the only thing that remained constant for me, that and drawing.

Shortly before my second sister Stephanie was born we moved, and then we moved again. We took a hiatus and moved to France for the first term of my Year 4. We came back cultured and then... moved again, and again, and then finally a little brother, Sam, was born. And then we moved again and again, but this time to Tasmania for another term to live in tents and then back to Victoria, Kinglake, where I completed my Year 8 in home schooling. All this while I did everything from horse riding, to paint classes, to gymnastics and fine-tuned my amazing people skills everywhere I went. Just when I thought we couldn't move anymore, my parents announced that we were coming to the Ballarat lands. My Dad started building our very own house that we would get to own and not rent when I started at Marian halfway through Year 9 and we have been at ever since.

I have certainly had my fair share of schools and stereotypes and when I finally got to Marian I had perfected the art of adapting. Along the way I came to realise many things about school, the main one being that to truly do the best you can you need to realise that you do not work for school, you must make school work for you.

I am grateful for all the opportunities I have had in my life and although they seemed like a nightmare at the time, I am grateful for all the hard times, slowly grinding at my life and creating the person that I am today :), which sounds super cliché but that is the only way I can put it because I know I could have come out differently.

Anywhooo, see you in the halls kiddos, Good luck with the last half of your school life.

Love Phoebe xx

IN MY WORDS with Aston Allen

Learning Leader

On the 2nd of October 2003 I was welcomed into the world at the Ararat Hospital by my Mum Mellissa and my Dad Shaun, Mum's second child and Dad's only child.

It was only a matter of time until the time bomb exploded. The bomb of course being my discovery of aviation. With the help of the best brother in the world and my father it wasn't long before I bitterly disappointed both of my parents before I turned two by saying my first 'word' which wasn't Dada, or Muma but instead Buttow. Which was little Aston's word for a plane (surprising, I know).

Then, at the tender age of three my Dad introduced me to the single most influential thing in my life, TOP GUN, after which I decided that I was going to be a fighter pilot in the RAAF.

At the age of four I started my early education at Jack and Jill Kindergarten which I can remember nothing about. A year after that I started my primary schooling. As a little prep I was introduced to my first real teacher Mr Caine. Mr Caine was a great teacher with the most memorable moments being whenever someone hurt himself the threats to cut whatever hurt off. This is something I don't think anyone will forget. Only two months after starting primary school I was lucky enough to attend my first ever Avalon airshow. A decision that my parents will forever regret as I have convinced my parents to get me, one way or another to every Avalon airshow since.

Throughout the years at primary school I came to realise the value of my only ever pet, a small Maltese Shih-Tzu named Oakley. Oakley would greet me at the front gate every day after school and even if the front door was open I would go out the back to play with him before going inside.

The highlight of my childhood is definitely being lucky enough to witness the last public display of the F-111, a memory that I will keep until the end of time. Other fond memories include seeing the F-22 perform its first display in Australia at the 2013 Avalon airshow and meeting various fast Jet pilots along the way.

My favourite memories of high school include taking the first (and last) pre-test of Year 9 Methods which I will be reminding Mr Hunt of in the future. As well as meeting some of the greatest people, whom I am lucky enough to call my friends.

As for Year 12, so far it has been the fastest moving year ever. Even though the workload is high and homework feels like eternity every day I look forward to seeing what might go on in the coming months. In the future I am hoping to join the ADF as a pilot entering through the Australian Defence Force Academy, after which I hope to progress through training and eventually be assigned to 1 or 6 squadrons, which both operate my two favourite currently serving RAAF aircraft; the F/A-18F and EA-18G respectively.

To everyone in Year 12 I wish you all the best for this year and well into the future and if anyone needs help throughout the year just yell out I'm always happy to help as is everyone else in the year.

IN MY WORDS with Isabella Browne

Learning Leader

To whomever wants to read

I am Isabella Browne, I am seventeen years old and daughter to Ann-Maree and Peter Browne, and sister to Theo. While I was born in Ararat on an outrageously hot summer's day, I have spent the entirety of my adolescence growing up on a farm in the rural community of Landsborough. I also attended the Primary School of my home town where my family has continued schooling for seven generations. I was fortunate enough to have some truly dedicated teachers at Landsborough who have shaped me into the person I am today and I am forever grateful for the valuable skills and lessons they have taught me. I always have such fond memories coming from a rural school with only sixteen students in total at the time and maybe that was why I found Marian so intimidating when transitioning. I thought wow it's such a big school, even though I've really learnt it's not.

Starting at Marian I had no one else from Primary School venturing alongside me and naturally being quite a shy girl, I blended in the first year and managed to make some incredible friends who surprisingly have put up with me for this long and will hopefully be able to calm me down during this stressful year ahead (I apologise in advance). I do hope to stay in touch with many of the connections I have made at Marian in the future and I wish my very ambitious and intelligent cohort every success in whatever career path they choose to pursue.

My interests over the years have swapped and changed but horse riding, tennis, travelling, reading and writing seem to have remained the longest. I've always had a passion for reading and writing and despite the fact I don't endeavour to seek a career in either areas I have a feeling I will still wind up connected to it. I have always maintained since my childhood an ardent love for cinema and hence my future aspirations are to attend a Melbourne film school to become a film director. It fascinates me how much film has embedded itself into our lives in modern society and I truly believe that the power of storytelling should never be undermined as it allows us to see the world through so many perspectives, and there is truly nothing like it. I'll hopefully be able to handle taking the big leap from country to city girl but I guess I'll have to find out for myself. I also plan to travel in my twenties as much as I possibly can! And maybe that is why my mother is not keen on me having a gap year otherwise she might not hear from me again. I am mostly keen to explore Europe extensively, consisting of: France, England, Switzerland, Germany, Austria, Spain, Greece, Russia and Italy but other countries have piqued my interest including Egypt where I really want to see the pyramids and explore their history. I also aim to be able to perfect French before I travel there as I'm afraid they might attack me if I do not speak it being an Australian and all.

I would say one particular influence on my life has been travel and having caught the travel bug so young I now want to go everywhere. When I was nine years old my family embarked on a month of European travel to attend a wedding in Sweden. We ended up going to six different countries on the journey including: Hong Kong, Denmark, Sweden, Northern Ireland, Scotland and Dubai and from that early experience I have always marvelled when hearing about how other cultures live. This sparked a major recurring passion for my family, as in 2017 we travelled to America stopping by Disneyworld in Florida, snorkelling with sea turtles in Hawaii, visited Elvis' house in Graceland, and saw the Statue of Liberty and my favourite musical on Broadway in the one day which I will never forget (there were a few tears). The following year we returned to Hawaii for a getaway however this time, I was in a knee brace as I had to have surgery after obtaining a football injury. I couldn't really do much but nonetheless, a holiday is a holiday and my mother was forced to wheel me around the shops for an entire day and take me to the Cheesecake Factory. I can still say to this day that I have been to Hawaii twice and not surfed either of those times. Sadly, with Covid-19 we have not been able to travel, and Europe, where I intend to go is not looking too good at the moment but hopefully, they will let me in in the near future.

I would like to acknowledge and thank those teachers who have truly believed in me and helped me improve my strengths and better my weaknesses at Marian and please know it has been greatly appreciated after six long years. I am wishing you all a happy and safe future.

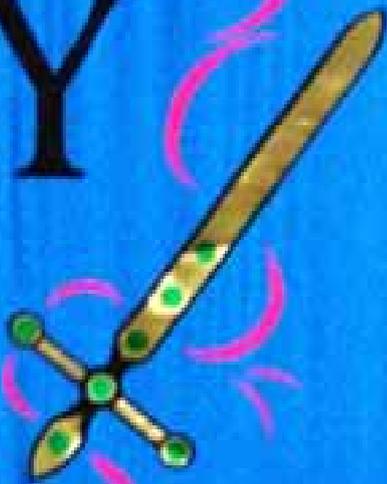

And lastly, a quote from my favourite film director...

"Hope is not a strategy. Luck is not a factor. Fear is not an option. Don't put limitations on yourself. Others will do that for you." - James Cameron

NEWS

FROM YOUR HOUSE LEADER

Well, we are into the final week of Term One and life is getting back to normal. It's been a busy term with our swimming carnival, Year 12 Retreat, Year 8 camp, Year level masses and of course lots of school work.

Tomorrow we will be holding our annual Athletics Carnival. This event did not take place last year so it will be a new experience for all of our Year 7s and 8s. The sports are held at Alexandra Oval. The students will go straight to the venue (buses will drop off the Stawell and country bus travellers) and must be there by 8.50am. Students do not have to be in uniform but we ask that they wear the clothes the colour of their House. Kelly students will be in blue. There will be a canteen available which will be run by the fabulous Bronny. Please make sure you bring a wide brim hat, appropriate footwear, a drink bottle and warm clothing if it's cold.

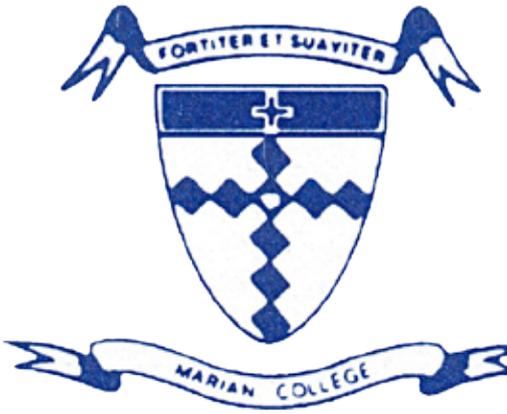

On Thursday our Year 12s will perform their version of Stations of the Cross. It is an important part of our school calendar and all students will view the performance at some stage during the day. I ask you to be respectful during the performance and try to give some understanding to the sacrifices made by Jesus for us.

As we come close to the end of the term and students start to tire, some of their choices both in the classroom and out are not always acceptable. Please try to follow the school rules and finish the term on a high.

Wishing you all a safe Easter. This year we will be able to go back to family traditions and enjoy it with others. Have a restful holiday.

Cheers
Donna Spalding

The carnival is a fun, active and colourful day and we look forward to seeing students getting into the spirit of the day by participating and supporting their team.
